spring is a time for new beginnings and fresh starts, especially when it comes to toys, clothes and other kid gear. Cleaning and sorting may be a chore, but cleverly designed storage options can make it a little more fun and may even convince your little one to help. These great storage pieces might just motivate you to get started on your spring cleaning right away.

1. (now you see it...) These stackable wood storage cubes rotate to hide contents and roll for portability. Choose from a stack of two, three or four. Each Perf Box is 13 inches wide by 15 inches high. $299 (for two), $399 (for three) and $499 (for four) at (800) 958-6334 or offi.com.

2. (form and function) These colorful Library storage units from Duc Duc feature sliding doors and built-in seats. Stack several to fit your space. Each one is made from sustainably harvested woods. $385 at (212) 226-1868 or ducducnyc.com.

3. (think outside the box) Soft-sided bins are super portable and can collapse when not in use. Use the mesh side pocket for additional storage or place a label inside so you know what's in the bin before you pull it off the shelf. $25 at ooma.com.

4. (top shelf) The Stokke Keep combines modular pieces to create an integrated, flexible storage unit: A bench supports an armoire or bookcase. Choose from four wood finishes and accessorize with baskets (sold separately). $1,299 at (877) 978-6553 or stokkeusa.com.

5. (round up) Flip the lid of this bright vinyl fabric ottoman to reveal a wood underside perfect for snack time. Stash blankets, toys or games inside. $169 at (888) 403-8992 or pkolino.com.

6. (tower power) A sturdy "X" frame keeps the Jax storage tower upright, and its three compartments are designed to store almost anything. The organic cotton tower is available in purple, green, orange or pink to suit your décor. $108 at (413) 467-2086 or nestplease.com.

7. (shared space) The basic cube design of the Exedit bookcase is ideal for storing kids' and parents' gear in one place. Keep toys and games in lower cubbies; stash books and breakables in higher ones. If it starts to look cluttered, add a few bins to conceal some items. $79.99 to $199 at ikea.com.
